At the Heart of Property Management

We're here to help you and make life easier
for your people

Organising a successful relocation alongside other complex HR roles can often be time-consuming for you. There's just so much to do!

Just imagine the positive impact outsourcing the whole process could make to your international team.

Rushbrook & Rathbone supply an independent home finding service that is totally focused on clients' needs to ensure that your international people are operational from day one of their assignment.

Rushbrook & Rathbone have many years of experience matching people and properties.

No matter where your people come from or whatever their housing and family needs we can help. The team here at Rushbrook & Rathbone will work hard to replace any feelings of frustration or anxiety with calm and reassurance. You can be sure that our expertise, insight and market knowledge will save you and your people time, money and wasted journeys.

From the moment you are given notice of new assignments, we can take care of everything. Starting with helping you to establish housing budgets and setting realistic expectations for your assignees through to local orientation tours, school selection and furniture hire. We'll support your people with every aspect of setting up their home in the UK.
